Hitler's Ire Pours Over Czech Head

A black and white photograph of a man with glasses, wearing a dark suit and tie. He is looking down and slightly to his left. The background is dark and out of focus.

Grimly prophetic were the words of President Eduard Benes, of Czechoslovakia, shown in this newly-arrived photo as he warned his fellow citizens to "Prepare for the heaviest and most far-reaching sacrifices." Hitler's Monday speech was particularly vitriolic in his dealings with President Benes.

German Press Blames Benes

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—German newspapers today were unanimous in charging to President Benes of Czechoslovakia the responsibility for whatever may happen to his republic. In this they followed Chancellor Hitler who yesterday called Benes a terrorist and gave him until Oct. 1 to hand Sudetenland over to the Reich.

Canadian Farmers Will No Share in Wartime Hon.

WEST CANADA NO PLACE FOR MIXED FARMING

Minister Tells East Importance of Prairie Wheat To Dominion

EMERSON, Ont., Sept. 27.—"It difficulties should arise from the European situation, the farmers of Canada will not share," Hon. J. G. Gardiner, federal minister of agriculture, told the annual farmers' day luncheon at the Pembroke Kipling Club Monday.

"While talking conditions prevail in Europe," he said, "we should see that Canadian producers are encouraged to produce wheat and other farm products now in season in following years, for nothing is more important to Canada than the assurance of continued production of wheat and livestock."

ANSWERS EAST

Mr. Gardiner took occasion to answer indirectly eastern Canada suggestions for less emphasis on wheat farming in the west and more on other lines of farming. Eastern Canada agriculture would suffer were the federal government to undertake an extensive program for the promotion of livestock and mixed farming in the west, he said.

"Only a small percentage of Canada's wheat production is grown outside the prairie provinces and no wheat is raised anywhere in the east," he said. "The great wheat crops now in the east are not competitive to the east."

PRAIRIES WHEAT BELT

Figures for the past 18 years showed that Canada exported an average of 68 per cent of her wheat, practically all western wheat. To promote mixed farming in the west, eastern wheat would have to be brought to the west, he said.

London's Press Is Shocked By Hitler's Sportsplast Speech

By GUY RHODES

Canada Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The British morning press, shocked by the violence of Hitler's Sportsplast speech, today still clung to a shred of optimism.

They noted Dr. Fuhrer did not advance his demand or did not advance the deadline. In the three days before the speech, no one had expected him to make any such demand.

WILL WORK FOR PEACE

"The British people, led by Mr. Chamberlain, will work for peace," said the paper. "But let me make it clear, the British people will not fight for peace, but for peace."

The paper said that the British people will not fight for peace, but for peace. It said that the British people will not fight for peace, but for peace.

DOOR HAMMED

The Daily Telegraph (Conservative) commented: "The test that can be said of the speech is that it is a door which has been slammed shut, and it is not irreversibly shut."

"There still is a breathing space, but there will have to be a wholly new spirit of compromise," it said.

WILL FACE CONSEQUENCES

"Britain with France and Russia will face these consequences calmly and confidently," it said.

"They know that all has been done that could be done to prevent war," it said.

"It is in our way, it is our fault," it said.

Peace by Force Plan Proposed by Soviet Official

Litvinoff Advocates Britain and France Join Russia in Mass Military Demonstration To Impress Hitler

GENEVA, Sept. 27.—Soviet Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff was reported today to have proposed a "peace by force" plan to Paris and London as the only possible answer to Chancellor Hitler.

The foreign commissar, some sources said, had told France and Britain that he would like to see them join Russia in military measures which would leave no doubt of their intention to fight if Hitler attempts to seize Czechoslovakia by force.

Sources close to the Russian delegation said the Soviet plan was to send the French, British and Soviet ambassadors simultaneously to the German foreign office, warning Germany they were prepared to defend Czechoslovakia.

DEMONSTRATE POWER

The next step in the "peace by force" plan was said to be a demonstration of the military might of the three powers as close to Germany as possible.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—Another visit by Sir Horace Wilson to Chamberlain's emissary, Sir Horace Wilson, today raised new hope of a peaceful solution of Germany's crisis.

City Council Seeks Housing Program

CITY AIMS TO LEND $250,000 FOR BUILDING

Federal Government Will Be Asked For Lending
Power

City commissioners were instructed by city council Monday night, to apply to the federal government for authority for the city to become a lending institution for housing purposes and to seek power from the provincial legislature to lend sums not exceeding $250,000 in the aggregate for building of houses for the purpose of the National Housing Act of 1938, upon proper security.

Should approval of the burgesses be necessary, commissioners are instructed to seek this by a plebiscite at the November 8 civic election this year. These proposals, moved by Ald. J. H. O'Hivie, received unanimous support of council at Monday's meeting.

RESENTS CRITICISM

A motion by Ald. Hugh John Macdonald that Mayor J. W. Beckett to Ottawa to confer with Dominion housing authorities and heads of lending institutions who defeated the mayor stating he had received the lending situation in the spring of the year was in Ottawa, Corporations, under the existing act, would not lend in Alberta, he said.

Ald. O'Hivie spoke against criticism that had been made of the council's failure to proceed with a housing plan under the new act. The present National Housing act was only amended on July 1, he said, while the provincial legislature from whom the city derives its powers, prorogued in April.

The last legislature, he said, denied the city the power to borrow money to re-lend for the purpose of building houses for the people, he said, repelled Dominion Housing act.

SUGGESTS PLAN

Criticizing lending corporations for their refusal to make loans for housing in Alberta, Ald. O'Hivie said, "If I could, I think I would not like to compel the insurance companies to invest some of the money they collect in premiums from Alberta policyholders in this province, or their licenses might be suspended."

Private institutions might be made a way in which they could make loans with the crown a party to the transactions. Ald. Macdonald said, in suggesting that the mayor go to Ottawa to discuss the situation.

Mayor Fry advised council that the federal deputy minister of finance had suggested that, by making the Dominion and lending institutions joint mortgagees, protection against default in the event of liquidation might be obtained.

He said he would be sure of this through a court test, if the council added. Heads of lending institutions had replied to this proposal that they were "not buying themselves into a lawsuit."

ONLY GRIEF

Part two of the present act, which provides for houses for rental, would require consent of the burgesses, the city council said, was desirable but that council was still unable to implement it.

Ald. D. K. Knott urged that the city go further into the act and arrive at a concrete proposal before sending a delegate to Ottawa.

COAL CONTRACT IS AWARDED TO MUTUAL SALES

City council Monday night again awarded the contract for supply of coal for city buildings to Mutual Coal Sales Limited, a group of eight Edmonton firms, for a period of not more than 16,000 tons, supply to start after October 1.

Prior to awarding this contract, Comptroller A. A. Campbell made a complete inspection of 28 mutual coal sales firms, checking mining methods, working conditions and rates of pay. The report states that Mutual Coal Sales must allocate not less than 15 per cent and not more than 20 per cent of the business to firms outside its own organization. These firms may apply to city commissioners if they feel they are not fairly dealt with.

PROTEST MADE ABOUT RUBBISH ON CITY LAND

City Health Department to Investigate Nuisance
Report

Complaints from residents of Cameron street and the adjacent area, that refuse is being dumped on the old Grierson dump, causing a fly nuisance, are being investigated by city health officials. It was learned Tuesday from Dr. G. M. Little, city medical officer of health.

"We had a complaint about a week and a half ago," Dr. Little said, "but when we investigated we found that it was dry refuse, which would not cause a nuisance."

STOP NUISANCE

"However, just before noon today a complaint came from a resident at the top of the Grierson hill who said that restaurant refuse was being dumped on the dump. We shall investigate this today and, if we find this going on, it will be stopped immediately, added."

Grierson dump was the main city dump for several years at a time when the largest part of domestic refuse consisted of food and furniture and when housewives for the most part burned their garbage.

INCINERATOR BUILT

After a large number of homes were equipped with gas stoves and furnaces, the nature of the refuse dumped has been changed. It was built on the south side of the river, the dump being abandoned and cleaned up.

A resident of Cameron street reported that 20 passengers seated and standing, and is equipped with a 40-horsepower motor, a quantity of domestic and restaurant refuse is still being dumped and declared that it was a health danger of an epidemic if this is not stopped.

Made at Windsor, Ont., by the Ford Motor Company, a new touring car made its initial trip on the University route Tuesday. It will accommodate 28 passengers seated and standing, and is equipped with a 40-horsepower motor, a quantity of domestic and restaurant refuse is still being dumped and declared that it was a health danger of an epidemic if this is not stopped.

Part two of the present act, which provides for houses for rental, would require consent of the burgesses, the city council said, was desirable but that council was still unable to implement it.

Ald. D. K. Knott urged that the city go further into the act and arrive at a concrete proposal before sending a delegate to Ottawa.

Mayor Fry advised council that the federal deputy minister of finance had suggested that, by making the Dominion and lending institutions joint mortgagees, protection against default in the event of liquidation might be obtained.

He said he would be sure of this through a court test, if the council added. Heads of lending institutions had replied to this proposal that they were "not buying themselves into a lawsuit."

NOVEMBER 7 IS ELECTION DATE AT ATHABASCA

Cabinet Fixes By-Election
Day To Fill Late C. C.
Ross' Seat

By-election in the Athabasca provincial constituency to elect a successor to the late Charles Ross, former minister of lands and mines, will be held Monday, November 7. It has been decided by the cabinet. The necessary work is being signed either on Tuesday or Wednesday. This would make October 28 nomination day.

Arrangements are being made for an election which is expected to occur 30 days, as Athabasca is a large area with a scattered population.

WON BY TADE
In the 1938 general election the seat was won by C. H. Tade. Social Credit candidate, who resigned to permit Mr. Ross, who had been appointed minister of lands and mines, to take the seat. Mr. Ross was elected by acclamation.

Social Credit undoubtedly will contest the seat, with Mr. Tade as the likely candidate, although a contest is expected for the nomination.

CONVENTION
The Liberal party is also calling a convention, which will be held at strong candidates who are being nominated. Mr. Tade is also being called to run as an independent by old-time supporters.

The Conservative party is not likely to contest the seat, as its strength is negligible. The party realize that it would be a hopeless battle.

HIT-RUN LOVE

—By Marguerite Gahagan

CARY OF CHARACTERS
PATRICIA MCGRAW, headstrong, she faced a choice between the law and love. LARRY, young, into. He feared an even greater choice.
TOM BARNES, character. He awaited the progress of the law.

Yesterday, Larry admits to Pat that he has done the wrong and could be forgiven to be out of it. Tom is determined to convict him.

CHAPTER X
PAT was frightened, yet caught again in her old feeling of love when Larry unexpectedly arrived at the McGraw home late in the evening.

She tried to hide her emotions. Such a short time ago his coming would have been only joyful, filled with the thrill of their planning, the hundred small things that bound them together. Now she fought to make the situation easy. Alone in the living room with the shaded lamp throwing the couch in shadow, Larry took her in his arms, buried his face in her hair. A wave of happiness flooded her. Poor Larry, so bemuddled, so confused, coming to her for comfort. She alone could help him, and now this must mean the moment had arrived that she had played for these last few days. He had seen his mistake, was engulfed in the net he had foolishly thrown around himself. He would admit it all, would, as she had begged, wipe the slate clean.

"I love you," he said in a low voice. "I've missed you so in all this mess. I can't seem to think straight."

"I'm not asking much, Church and I can prove alibi. You can tell about the drive to the dance. The teacher was home after we came out. Not before. We can break down these witnesses. All you have to do is get Sweeney to cooperate a little."

"She moved away, walking up and down, up and down the room. At last she turned, her face white and drawn. "There is such a thing as honor, too, Larry. I won't let you. I won't go in Tom Sweeney and let him to throw a case, because that's what it amounts to after all. You committed a crime. An entire family is suffering as a result. You didn't mean to. I know that you can help them now, and you have to be square. You can't beguile yourself on the stand."

Larry got up, put on his coat and hat and went to the door. "All right, then. We understand each other. You won't help. I tell you. The first time I ask you to go to jail for me you take some senseless drivel. Well, I'll get help some other way."

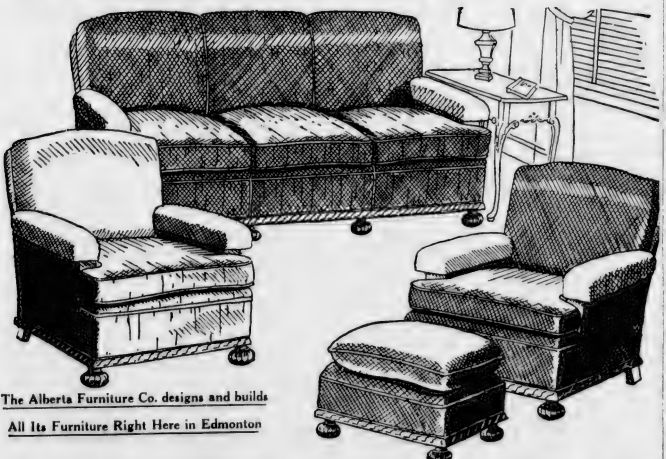

Things went on as before. The boys were engaged with preparation for final exams, with the novelty of the new over which they worked in the back yard. Yet there was a new tenderness in their attitude toward Pat. The next night Joe belted his final mouthful of pie and turned to her.

"How about a movie? I'll stand the treat, and there's a swell new show at the Capital."

"She agreed, not because she wanted to go, but because she didn't want to refuse his invitation. The boys didn't want her to feel too badly about the recent events. While she hadn't explained the break be-

Complains

Through the complaint of John B. Green, St. Thomas, Ontario, the Ontario government has been obliged to investigate the mental health administered by the Ontario government.

Tom Sweeney, who has not yet taken to play around in that.

"I don't know. I'm not being really, but I suppose something different for her. Maybe she likes to be the one who's not loved. Maybe she's really getting into a state of mind."

The whole thing was obviously Pat. Though she was in the presence of her men, Larry was still enough to think that Sweeney could bring her back to her father, who was one of the most powerful men in the city.

Tom's presence beside her gave her a slight comfort during the last few minutes he would say, but she thought he would be so kind that he was content of her.

"I passed these in a flash of a minute on the way down the mountain," he said, "and I could not find a single one of them."

"The expression in his eyes made her heart flutter," Larry said to her. "Now Tom's eyes had the same of his feelings toward her, then all the little gestures of the past weeks. She felt herself being led by him in the dark of the night."

"You can help me, can't you?" Sweeney would say. "I can't give you a break. Get yourself together." Larry's words came back with an incessant repetition.

And Tom was here now waiting for her to answer. Clinging for her, wanting her company at dinner. Honest, sincere, striving to make his record before the election.

And some place else in the atmosphere of his own life, trying like a frightened child to fight his way clear, not realizing the seriousness of his position.

"We can have a real meal from a change," Tom was saying. "No said, 'wishes and milk the lunch time. I'll have to work later, but if you feel you can give me a few hours.'"

She looked up into his brown eyes, at the utterly lack of brown hair falling over his forehead.

"Let's go to go, Tom. I'll be ready in ten minutes."

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly

Seconds Out!
Canada Watches
Let's Show 'Em!

TONIGHT promises a decisive end to western Canada's most bitter feud—the Tebo-Wenstob rivalry for the western heavyweight championship. These two able-bodied fighters meet in the Empire Theatre here tonight on the broadest stage with the fight officially sanctioned by the Western Canada Boxing Federation as for the western championship. Owing to the affiliations of the federation, this title will be definitely recognized throughout the world. It is no more make-believe than that they are shooting for this time. At present there is no official western heavyweight champion, but Tebo is recognized as number one contender. Wenstob is the western Canada light-heavyweight champion.

The one thing that everyone in western Canada is praying for tonight is a decisive knockout victory. It will clear the situation, give the winner a flying start and most confidence and pave the way for the staging of the Dominion heavyweight championship here. Promoter Ed Osborne is perhaps the most eager of all to see the Tebo-Wenstob affair definitely settled so that he can move toward a Canadian title fight.

With the starting time due in a few hours, betting odds around town seemed to be running about even money. Some favoured Tebo, while others were leaning toward Wenstob. Some favoured Tebo, while others were leaning toward Wenstob. Some favoured Tebo, while others were leaning toward Wenstob.

It strikes me that the result will depend largely on whether or not Wenstob has put some voltage behind his punches. From his arm work it appears that he has finally found out why he has been able to win his previous knockouts. The question is whether Ed can work with some technique when Tebo starts pulling his leather at him. Wenstob has got him working on his new punching method, enough for him to be able to use it. It is now up to Tebo to see if he can take it. If he can do it with his knee-power he should win.

I doubt if Tebo will show much improvement in his boxing. However, he certainly will be tougher and more rugged than ever. His summer in the north country has done wonders for him. His heater and he doesn't perspire so easily as he did in his return from New York and he seems to have more fire in him. His rounds will be a war to the end.

Tebo's advantages lie in his extra weight, phenomenal strength and ability to land with terrific power. Wenstob's best asset is his boxing ability and speed.

The real sale game will be very close. Some choice seats were still left this morning, although there was a strong crowd for the show.

Jeep Dismore will referee the main event. A strong supporting cast of 20 rounds of preliminary bouts over four hours will start at 8:30 p.m.
